Virtual
Participatory Research and Evaluation

Even as we all continue to face challenges that were unforeseen just a month ago, your work as important as ever. Just as we've supported the authors here, we want to help you continue your research and planning. Recalibrate your plan, and do your entire project in a virtual environment.

Group Concept Mapping (GCM) projects can be 100% virtual! Our tools can help you work remotely.

- Web-based training
- groupwisdom™ application for data collection and analysis (Compatible with common web browsers)
- Online GCM Resource Guide and groupwisdom™ tutorials
- Phone consultation support with Research Essentials

The wisdom of your participants is not limited by space and distance--let us help you reach out through your GCM projects.
