CSI's Web-based GCM Training Launches!

CSI's first-ever Web-based GCM Training (WBT) course is underway. It's a pleasure to welcome a wonderful cohort of trainees; each is doing exciting and important work, and all are enjoying the chance to learn from each other.

Hundreds of GCM practitioners have attended our standard in-person 2.5 day training. Adapting the whole course to a virtual format allows us to reach more people, and right-size the time commitment for training. CSI President Mary Kane remarked, "Meeting our trainees and welcoming them to the GCM family is truly a highlight of the year. I am so glad we are able to host training distantly, but not separately." The course covers the concepts, logistics, techniques, analyses and technology of a GCM project, and includes customized consulting on each attendee's projects.

The next WBT course begins June 15, and we're hosting the third session beginning in
