

Welcome!

We are eager to help you on your way to Group Concept Mapping with groupwisdom! When you purchase your license, you will sign the full license agreement. Just fyi, you can find it here: <https://groupwisdom.com/buy>

This document contains highlights of the legal licensing agreement that you will sign so that you can use groupwisdom™, and its documentation, legally, and with confidence. Your license will have regulations about using and sharing the licensed application. This information refers specifically to your purchase of either a single project license, or a single-owner annual license CSI offers other licenses, with more capacity. Please email us if you have any questions or require a different type of license. Thank you!

Highlights of the Intellectual Property & Technology License Agreement for Single Project and Annual Single Owner Licenses

About Grant of License

When you purchase a project or annual single-owner license, you are granted a nonexclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable license to access the application. This means that you are not permitted to open your license to the use of others or add others' projects to your license.

About Use and Access

The highlights of this section focus on legal use of the application. Please read these carefully, to make sure you agree with these regulations:

As the License Owner (the buyer) you may not rent, lease, sell, lend, license, transfer, or otherwise permit any person or entity other than you to use the application in any manner, or use any portion or component of it. Exceptions are the assignment of support role tasks in a project, which are allowed only when you are the principal of the project.

As the License Owner, you will not provide your identification or password information to any others; and our access information cannot be cached on any other servers for others' use; or share your password with multiple users on a network.

About the License Term and Termination

The term of this agreement will start after CSI receives full payment for the application. The term will continue to the expiration date based on the license type purchased and activation date.

Although CSI rarely has terminated a license agreement, if the License Owner does not honor the license agreement (especially the items highlighted here) CSI may terminate the license agreement and remove access to the application.

About Ownership of the groupwisdom™ Application

The groupwisdom™ application is licensed, not sold. Groupwisdom™ remains the exclusive property of CSI. The license agreement does not give any License Owner any rights to the content of the application. You will be the owner of data that you enter into the application, and you will own the content of the results of analysis of such data created using the application.

An important caution: No License Holder may, or permit or cause another person or entity, to modify, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, or create derivative works from or based upon the application and/or any component or portion thereof or any application documentation.

About the Confidentiality of Project Data

CSI's privacy policy states that CSI and its service providers will not use or disclose projectbased data or information for any purpose other than supporting our license agreement and related services. CSI will not disclose to any person or entity any information you have entered into the application, without your prior written consent, unless directed to do so by a court order.
